

(1B) Dust of Snow

1. Dust of snow has been written by Robert Frost.
2. Dust of snow means particles of snow.
3. The poet's mood was sad because of some reason.
4. The poet was going some where.
5. It was winter.
6. The poet comes under a wet hemlock tree when it started raining.
7. A crow comes on the tree from nowhere.
8. The crow shakes down the hemlock tree. Then the dust of snow falls down on the poet and the falling of dust of snow changes the poet's mood.
9. The poet's mood changes from sadness to happiness.
10. Dust of snow changes the poet's heart.
11. The crow and the hemlock tree play an important role in changing the poet's mood from sadness to happiness.