Section-D (Long Answer Type)

किन्हीं 4 प्रश्नों के उत्तर दें (प्रत्येक 5 अंक):

47. Why does the poet admire animals in Walt Whitman's poem "Animals"?

Ans: Walt Whitman admires animals because they are calm, self-contained, and satisfied. Unlike humans, animals do not sweat or whine about their condition. They do not lie awake at night weeping for their sins, nor do they discuss their duty to God. They are free from the "mania of owning things" and do not show false respect to others. The poet feels more at home with animals because of their natural innocence.

48. What kind of life Matilda and her husband live after the loss of the diamond necklace?

Ans: After losing the necklace, Matilda and M. Loisel's life changed drastically. To repay the debt of 36,000 francs, they moved to a small attic room. Matilda had to do all the heavy household chores like washing clothes and scrubbing floors herself. Her husband worked extra jobs in the evenings and nights. They lived a life of extreme poverty and misery for ten long years until the debt was fully paid.

49. Who was Horace Danby and what kind of a person was he?

Ans: Horace Danby was a fifty-year-old man who made locks and was considered a good, honest citizen. However, he was not completely honest. He had a rare hobby of collecting expensive books. To fund this hobby, he used to rob one safe every year. He was a meticulous planner but was eventually outsmarted by a young lady in red who was also a thief.

50. Write a character sketch of Griffin. (Griffin का चरित्र चित्रण):

Answer:

Griffin was a brilliant scientist who discovered a rare drug that could make the human body invisible. However, despite his intelligence, he was a "lawless person" who misused his discovery for personal gain and revenge.

Key traits of Griffin:

Brilliant Scientist: He was highly talented and succeeded in the difficult experiment of making himself transparent like a sheet of glass.

Lawless and Revengeful: Instead of using his invention for the good of humanity, he used it to rob people and set fire to his landlord's house after a dispute.

Short-tempered: He was an irritable man who would easily get angry and violent, as seen during his stay at the Iping inn.

Lonely and Homeless: His invisibility made him a "homeless wanderer" without clothes or money, forcing him to steal to survive.

51. Education played an important role in transforming Bholi's life... Illustrate.

Ans: Education was the turning point for Bholi. Initially a shy, stammering girl neglected by her family, her teacher's encouragement and education gave her confidence. It empowered her to stand up against the greedy Bishamber during her wedding, proving that education can help girls face any societal challenge with courage and self-respect.

52. What kind of a girl was Valli? Discuss her qualities.

Ans: Valli was an eight-year-old girl full of curiosity, courage, and independence. She carefully planned her bus journey by saving every penny and gathering information. Her independence is seen when she travels alone, and her curiosity is shown in how she observes everything during the ride, making her a very mature character for her age.
