

A letter to god

Writer - G. L. Fuentes

Character - Lencho hard working farmer

Post master - Head of a post office

Post man - One who gives us letter

Q1. Who is the author of the lesson 'A Letter to god'?

Ans → G. L. Fuentes.

Q2. Lencho demanded _____ from God.

Ans → 100 Pesos.

Q3. The _____ collected 70 Pesos for Lencho.

Ans → Postmaster.

Q4. Where was Lencho's house situated?

Ans → Top of a hill.

Q5. What the postmaster needed to help Lencho was -

Ans → money.

Q6. The field looked as if it were covered in _____.

Ans → Salt

Q7. What did Lencho think of the post office employees?

Ans → bunch of crooks.

Q8. What did Lencho compare the large raindrops with?

Ans → new coins

Q9. Which crop was growing on Lencho's fields?

Ans → Corn

Q10. What destroyed Lencho's fields?

Ans → hailstorm

A Letter to God

- A letter to god has been written by G.L. Fuentes.
- Lencho is the main Character of the story
- Lencho, Postmaster, Postman Belong to the story
- A letter to god.
- Lencho is a hard working farmer.
- Lencho's house was situated on the Crest of a low hill in a valley.
- Lencho was completely dependent on his crops.
- His crops was about to ripe but his crops needed a downpour or a shower.
- Lencho always sees in the direction of north east in the hope of rain.
- Lencho wife was preparing supper.
- The rain fell in the entire valley for an hour
- Big drops of water was of ten cents whereas Small drop of water was of five cents.
- Locust insect which destroys crops.
- Plague - Group of locust / insect
- The hailstones destroy Lencho's field completely It left nothing.
- Lencho was on ox of a man means (शूद्र) He works like an animal in the field.
- He was literate (साक्षर) He knows how to read and write.
- Lencho and his family spent a sorrowful night.

- Lencho had complete faith in God.
- He had one help. It was the help of God.
- Lencho writes a letter to God asking for 100 pesos to sow my field again and to live until the crop comes.
- Lencho himself goes to the post office and drops the letter in the mailbox.
- The postman helps Lencho in the post office.
- Lencho had complete faith that the letter will reach to the God and the God sends him 100 pesos.
- The postman had never such a letter addressed to God.
- The postman gives the letter to the postmaster.
- The postmaster first laughs when he reads the letter but after a moment he becomes serious.
- The Postmaster wishes that he had such faith in God as Lencho had.
- The Postmaster wants to keep Lencho's faith alive in God.
- The Postmaster sends 70 Pesos to Lencho.
- The Postmaster collects 70 Pesos from his friends, Postoffice employees and also giving some part of his salary.

- The postmaster signs the letter God to keep Lencho's faith alive in God.
- Lencho became angry when he counted the money and got only 70 pesos because he had full / firm faith in the god that the God will definitely send him 100 pesos.
- Lencho writes once again a letter to God requesting him to send the rest 30 pesos and tells him not to send through mail.
- Lencho thinks that the postoffice employees are a bunch of crooks.
- Lencho writes 2 letters to God.