

Voice

Voice

Active Voice

Passive Voice

Active voice - Subject is the doer of the action.

Passive voice - Subject is the receiver of the action.

- Present Perfect Tense

Active form - (Sub + has/have + v³ + obj)

Passive form - (obj + has/have + been + v³ + by + sub)

Example - Rohan has done this.

→ This has been done by Rohan

- Simple Past Tense

Active form - (Sub + v² + obj)

Passive form - (obj + was/were + v³ + by + sub)

Example - Rohan played basket ball.

→ Basket ball was played by Rohan

• Past Perfect Tense

Active form - (Sub + had + V³ + Obj)

Passive form - (Obj + had + been + V³ + by + Sub)

Example - I had passed the exam.

→ The exam had been passed by me.

• Past continuous Tense

Active form - (Sub + was/were + V⁴ + Obj)

Passive form - (Obj + was/were + being + V³ + by + Sub)

Example - sohan was reading book.

→ book was being read by sohan.

• Future Perfect Tense

Active form - (Sub + shall/will + have + V³ + Obj)

Passive form - (Obj + shall/will + have + been + V³ + by + Sub)

Example - Rohan will have passed the exam.

→ The exam will have been passed by Rohan.

Shall - I , We

के साथ

Will - You, He, she, it, Name, they, singular and plural word के साथ

He - him , I - me , We - us , They - them, she - her

© APNA STUDY APNA GROUP