Q. 2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Water is one of the most important natural resources. With the rising population there has been an increasing pressure on this earth's resources. Scarcity of water has been felt throughout the country. Efforts have been made to collect water by building dams. Wells have also been dug to create ground water structure. But this is not enough. Wise conservation of water is needed. One of the most popular ways of conservation is rain water harvesting. It means collecting rain water on the roofs of buildings and storing it underground for later use. This method can raise the level of ground water and also increase water supply. Another method is waste water harvesting. Water from kitchens and bathrooms is collected and cleaned. It can then be used for purposes other than drinking.

Questions:

- (a) Which two methods have been suggested for conservation of water?

- (b) What efforts have been made for the collection of water?
- (c) Mention two advantages of rain water harvesting.
- (d) What purpose can the water collected from the method of waste water harvesting be used for?

(a) PROSE (20 Marks)

Q.12. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Very soon Mij would follow me without a lead and come to me when I called his name. He spent most of his time in play. He spent hours shuffling a rubber ball round the room like a four-footed soccer player using all four feet to dribble the balol, and he could also throw it, with a powerful flick of the neck, to a surprising height and distance. But the real play of an otter is when he lies on his back and juggles with small objects between his paws. Marbles were Mij's favourite toys for his pastime : he would lie on his back rolling two or more of them up and down his wide, flat belly without ever dropping one to the floor.

Questions:

- (a) What did the otter do to a rubber ball?
- (b) How did he throw the ball?

- (c) What is the real play of an otter?
- (d) What did he do to the marbles?
- (e) Find a word from the passage which means 'hobby'.

Q.13. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Day after day she watched the bus, and gradually a tiny wish crept into her head and grew there: She wanted to ride on that bus, even if just once. This wish became stronger and stronger, until it was an overwhelming desire. Valli would stare wistfully at the people who got on or off the bust when it stopped at the street corner. Their faces would kindle in her longings, dreams and hopes. If one of her friends happened to ride the bus and tried to describe the sights of the town to her, Valli would be too jealous to listen and would shout, in English: "Proud! Proud". Neither she nor her friends really understood the meaning of the word, but they used it after as a slang expression of disapproval. <https://www.jharkhandboard.com>

Questions:

- (a) What was Valli's tiny wish?
- (b) What would Valli do when her wish had become an overwhelming desire?
