Write a letter to the Municipal Commissioner complaining about the dirt and filth lying around your colony. (In about 100 words)

Ans.

To,

~~The Municipal Commissioner
Ranchi, Jharkhand~~

~~Subject - Regarding complaints against the dirt and filth lying around our colony.~~

Dear Sir,

With due humble, I would like to draw your attention to the worst condition of my colony. The roads of our colony are damaged. Drainage water is flowing on the roads. It has become muddy and damaged.

Several main-holes are uncovered.

It is very dangerous for the colony's people. We have requested again and again but all our requests have fallen on deaf years.

There are piles of garbages on the roads. Piles of garbages smells are unbearable. So, flies and mosquitoes are growing rapidly.

(S) I therefore request you to look into the matter and take immediate action to clean the colony.

We, the colony's people will be highly obliged and grateful to you for this act of kindness.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully

Ans.

An accident that I have seen

Ranchi, 5th March 2015

We saw a serious train accident yesterday at 9 AM near Muri of Ranchi district.

The Swarna Jayanti express collided with a goods train due to a technical fault and a bit of fault of the station master. About nine compartments were derailed. About nine hundred persons were injured. And five peoples were declared dead by the doctors.

It was a horrible and pathetic scene. The nearest villagers rushed to the sight. They helped the injured. I helped them too.

The injured were crying for help and their belongings were scattered here and there.

The police had arrived at the spot. They inspected the area. Even the minister of Railways had come there. People were helping the injured.

They were being taken to the nearest hospital. He felt much sorrow, for the deads.

It was a very dangerous and pathetic accident, g have ever seen.

(Marks : 20)

- Q. 12. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow :

Very soon Mij would follow me without a lead and come to me when I called his name. He spent most of his time in play. He spent hours shuffling a rubber ball round the room like a four-footed soccer player using all four feet to dribble the ball, and he could also throw it, with a powerful flick of the neck, to a surprising height and distance. But the real play of an otter is when he lies on his back and juggles with small objects between his paws. Marbles were Mij's favourite toys for his pastime : he would lie on his back rolling two or more of them up and down his wide, flat belly without ever dropping one to the floor.

Questions :

- What did the otter do to a rubber ball ?
- How did he throw the ball ?

Q. 13. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow :

Day after day she watched the bus, and gradually a tiny wish crept into her head and grew there : She wanted to ride on that bus, even if just once. This wish became stronger and stronger, until it was an overwhelming desire. Valli would stare wistfully at the people who got on or off the bus when it stopped at the street corner. Their faces would kindle in her longings, dreams and hopes. If one of her friends happened to ride the bus and tried to describe the sights of the town to her, Valli would be too jealous to listen and would shout, in English : "Proud ! Proud". Neither she nor her friends really understood the meaning of the word, but they used it after as a slang expression of disapproval.

Questions :

- (a) What was Valli's tiny wish ? 1
 (b) What would Valli do when her wish had become an overwhelming desire ? 1

- (c) What would excite Valli's wish ? 1

Q. 14. How is bread an important part of Goan life ? 6

OR

Why does the postmaster send money to Lenchu ?

Ans. In a Goan village, a bread is an important part of the life of the Goan people. All their festivals and other occasions would be meaningless without the company of a baker's furnace. His musical entry "jhang! jhang!" with a bamboo would announce his arrival. With one hand he supported his basket and with the other hand he held a bamboo.

Even a small party or a feast will lose its charm without the presence of the baker's bread. The people of Goa enjoy bol, it is known as the kabai.

On the occasion of her daughter's engagement the lady of the house prepares sandwiches, cakes and bolinhais a must for Christmas and other occasions.

Thus the presence of the baker's bread is absolutely essential in the Goan village.

The baker had a peculiar dress known as the kabai. At the end of the month he would collect his bills. Monthly accounts are maintained on the walls with a pencil. The baker and his family always looked happy and prosperous. He was rich since selling bread was a profitable business.

Q. 15. Who won the drawing contest? What had the winner drawn?

OR

Why was the young seagull afraid to fly?

Ans. ~~The young seagull was afraid to fly because he did not have the courage to fly. Although he had taken a little run forward to the brink of the ledge. He became afraid. The fear to die would not let him fly.~~

~~The great expanse of sea stretched down beneath him and it was such a long way down - miles down. He felt certain that his wings would never support him.~~

~~The vast green sea beneath too frightened him. His two brothers and a little sister had already flown away the day before. But he was afraid to fly with them.~~

~~He was desperate for food but the fear to die would not let him fly to food. He failed to muster up courage to take that plunge which appeared to him so desperate.~~

~~so, the young seagull was afraid to fly.~~

(Marks : 15)

- Q. 18. Give a character sketch of Bholi.

OR

How will you assess Griffin as a scientist ?

Ans. Bholi was the fourth daughter of Ramlal, the Numberdar. From her very childhood she was a little slow. She was a simpleton. At first, Bholi was very fair and pretty. But she had an attack of smallpox at the age of two. She could not speak till she was five. She had smallpox marks on her face and she stammered. So, Bholi's father was worried about her marriage. He was afraid that he would not be able to find a bridegroom for her because she had neither good looks nor intelligence. Bholi was considered as a backward child, so she was nicknamed Bholi. Her real name was Sulekha.

When Bholi was admitted to the primary, her teacher treated her affectionately. She gave her a new hope. She told her that one day she would be more learned than anyone else in the village.

It is her teacher's firm faith, determination and devotion which sows a new seed of a different Bholi in her. With a passage of time she stops being a dumb cow by the love and encouragement of her teacher.

Bholi's father arranged her marriage with Bishamber, a rich grocer. But she refused to get married with him as he demanded dowry from her father. She decided to teach in the same school where she had learnt so much. She dedicated herself to the service of her parents who always neglected her. Education had brought about a change in his personality.

Q. 19. Why was Matilda unhappy?

OR

What work did the thief do for Anil?

Ans. Matilda was a pretty woman but she was born in a poor family. As she had no dowry she married a petty ~~clear~~ clerk who worked in the office of the Board of education. She had romantic ideas of life. She wanted to enjoy the luxuries of life. So, she was dissatisfied with her life. She disliked her modest apartment and old furniture. When Matilda was invited to a grand party, she was filled with sadness as she had no dowry. She borrowed the diamond necklace from her friend, Mrs. Forestier. She enjoyed the party and danced with enthusiasm but she lost the necklace. Her husband had to borrow eighteen thousand francs. In order to repay the debt she and her husband had to lead a wretched life for ten years. She looked old and ugly. So, Matilda was unhappy.

Q. 20. How did Max enter Ausable's room ? Why did he do so ?

OR

How did Ebright's mother encourage him ?

Ans.

Ausable was a secret agent but he doesn't look like that. He had an important paper on missiles. Max is another agent he wants to take that report.

He entered Ausable's room with a masterkey. He had an authomatic pistol. He was hell belt on giving the report from Ausable.

But Ausable did not get the least. He is not nervous. He kept to cool and narrated a cooked up story.

He tells that he would tell the hotel management to close that balcony. People enter his room through this balcony. But there was no such balcony over there.

Then a waiter knocks at the door but he says it is the police. Max jumped into the balcony and met with his death.
