My dear father

I got your letter and became glad to know that you are well home. I am also happy here my classes have started. I have not bought my books yet and I have to buy other necessary things also I need 2000 rupees for this.

Therefore I request you to please send me 2000 rupees so that I could buy me books and other things and I could continue my study properly.

For this I shall remain grateful to you.

Convey my regards to mumma and love to younger

your loving son
